

Celebrating MSE

Past, present and future

Where has tha' bin since I saw thee?

CHRISM Reflective weekend 2012

The Briery Retreat Centre, Ilkley, 17-19 February

Led by the Revd. David Simon, we meet to celebrate Ministry in Secular Employment and look to the future. David experience as an MSE is as - for many years – a lecturer in Accountancy and Finance at the University of Humberside. After retiring from education, he was Administrator and Assistant Warden of Rydal Hall, Cumbria, and is now NSM Officer for the Diocese of Carlisle.

The Briery is situated in Ilkley, underneath the famous moor, and provides excellent facilities. Visit the website for further information: <http://www.briery.org.uk/>

How to get there:

Rail. Ilkley enjoys a good rail service from Leeds (26 minutes). Connections from King's Cross, two trans-pennine lines, south Yorkshire, the Midlands, the North East and Edinburgh.

Road. From north, south and east, Ilkley and is 35 minutes off the A1M (Wetherby). From the west, the A65 from Skipton passes through Ilkley, or use M62 / M606 / A650, via Bradford and Shipley.

Partners welcome – why not make this part of a longer break?

Cost, from dinner on Friday evening to lunch on Sunday, inclusive:

£140 (members); £150 (non-members).

Grants should be available from your Church to cover all or part of the cost – apply now to get their support! Please ask CHRISM for a receipt, if required.

We hope you will want to come.

To book, please return the attached slip (by 15th January, 2012).

And don't forget your hat!
